

Owl Class —Term 2

English

Our English work this term will be linked to our class text. Children will explore, plan and write their own adventure narrative.

Maths

We will learn how to transfer our understanding of addition, subtraction, multiplication and division to fractions and decimals. We will also look at the relationships between the two.

Science

Our topic this term is Evolution and Inheritance and our Scientist of the term is Charles Darwin.

Geography

We are studying a unit on Life in The Alps - looking at what it is like to live there and how it differs from where we live in Dunton Green.

PSHE

This term, children will complete a unit of work on 'Valuing Differences' exploring themes of tolerance and respect and challenging stereotypes.

French

Short blurb about the

By the end of this unit pupils will present both orally and in written form about what they have and do not have in their pencil cases/ school bag.

Computing

This term children will learn how to use cloning and hotspots within their programs. They will use more complex flowcharts to help them test and debug existing simulations, building up to developing a text-based adventure game.

RE

We will continue our question: What matters most to Christians and Humanists? We will then look at different accounts of The Christmas Story.

PE

Mondays – Mountain Biking with Ollie Ireland
Thursdays – Tag Rugby with Miss Bracken

DT

Children will research, plan and prepare a savoury dish (Steamed Vegetable Momos) applying knowledge of ingredients and technical skills.

Core Text

Running on the Roof of the World by Jess Butterworth is a thrilling adventure story set in the mountains of Tibet. It follows two friends, Tash and Sam, who live in a small, peaceful village surrounded by towering peaks. When their world is suddenly shaken by danger, they must find courage and friendship to guide them on a brave journey across the Himalayas. The story explores themes of freedom, hope, and the power of determination. Filled with breathtaking landscapes, heart, and adventure, it's a tale about standing up for what's right and never giving up, no matter the obstacles.